AC Relocation

Anna-Karin Nilehn & Cecilia Bressen Marthinsson

Business Description:

Relocation specialists, offering professional assistance and a helping hand to those setting up a new life in London.

What is AC Relocation's speciality?

AC Relocation provides the answers to all the daunting questions that you are faced with during a relocation, ensuring a smooth transition to a new life in London. We help you find the perfect home and share our extensive knowledge of the best local facilities, from schools and sports clubs to tradesmen and doctors surgeries.

Who are your clients?

We look after a whole spectrum of clients ranging from private families to large corporations, tailoring our service to individual needs. Recent clients have included The Swedish Defence Ministry and renowned film director, Lasse Hallström.

What advice would you give someone moving to London?

To be able to embrace the vast opportunities that London provides, location is essential. Make a list of your priorities, considering factors such as travel time to work, distance from the nearest school, public transport links, access to the airport, proximity to shops, etc. We will then help you find the location which best meets your criteria by using our extensive local knowledge and many contacts.
